judges

At the tender age of three Brandon started taking ballet, which led to tap, jazz, lyrical and acro after being exposed to dance by his mother who taught in a family-owned studio in Brantford, ON. It wasn't long until he was competing locally and internationally.

After 10 years of dance at the Phillips Dance Studio in Brantford he continued his training in Brampton at JoAnne Chapman School of Dance for five years, as well as vocal, piano and theory studies at various schools; he moved on to perform in Superstars at Canada's Wonderland in the Paramount Theatre and the Sears Fashion Show, and eight years Brandon worked for Carnival Cruise Lines as Dance Captain.

Brandon has 15 years of teaching experience at local dance studios involving pursuance of technical training, exam work, workshops and choreography. Brandon attends workshops and summits around the United States and Canada, including the Dance Teachers Summit in New York City. He is currently working on a new entertainment company.

Brandon is a member of the PAA (Professional Adjudicators Alliance) and is also involved in adjudicating for dance competitions in Canada and the United States.
