MEET THE JUDGES

JUDGE 2022

Sandra

EDMONTON, ALBERTA

Sandra successfully juggled a busy schedule of performer, teacher, dance studio owner, choreographer, artistic director, producer and adjudicator for 50 + years. Sandra has is knowledgeable in all types and styles of dance. She got an early start to her training in the Edmonton area and continued on to study in Toronto, New York, Los Angeles, London, and Las Vegas with many of the world's most reputable and inspiring teachers.

After many successful years of performing in dinner theatres, musicals, and touring with well known Canadian celebrities, Sandra established herself as a prominent teacher and choreographer. Her choreography showcases both the technical elements of the dancers and her own innovative unique style, which was acknowledged by her many outstanding achievement awards and recognition around the world.

Sandra freelances as a choreographer and was the artistic director of the international performing group Edmonton Dance Excel for over 15 glorious years and recently Sandra had the pleasure of teaching workshop master classes and choreography to the wonderful students at the Professional National Opera Ballet company school in Bucharest, Romania, in September of 2019.

JUDGE 2022

EDMONTON, ALBERTA

Jen has studied dance and classical piano extensively since the age of three. Since that time, she has taken part in various competitions and performances as well as completing her major exams in Cecchetti, RAD, and Vaganova ballet techniques; as well as the Royal Conservatory of Music.

Jen has toured with TERPICHICOIRE 1, commissioned by the Minister of Education of Romania as an instructor, choreographer, and performer. As well as promotional work for Calvin Klein, Lancôme and Elizabeth Arden, Jen has taught swing for The Big Bad Voodoo Daddies, and performed as a principal dancer in Bill Robertson's film, The Mystic Village. Other performances include The Grey Cup 1999-2006, Miss Hawaiian Tropic, Blue Rodeo, Dwight Yoakam, and the Calgary Stampede.

Jen is living her passion as the artistic director and owner of a dance studio in Edmonton. She is a teacher and choreographer to hundreds of students, as well as a guest choreographer and judge throughout Canada and the United States.

She is the proud instructor to dancers with credits such as Janet Jackson State of the World tour, Janet Jackson's Unbreakable tour, Dancing with the Stars Juniors, multiple appearances and performances on the Ellen Degeneres Show, America's Got Talent and The BET awards.

JUDGE 2022

Nola Antony

EDMONTON, ALBERTA

Nola Antony has been teaching and performing in many styles of dance for over 25 years. She has been trained under R.A.D., A.D.A.P.T., Al Gilbert and Acrobatic Arts syllabus. Nola has taught dance at both recreational and competitive levels and her students have won numerous high-score and choreography awards. She is a certified dance teacher with the Royal Academy of Dance, as well as Module One certified with Acrobatic Arts and with Professional Adjudication Alliance (P.A.A.). Recently Nola certified with Acro Dance Teachers Association's Adjudicators course as well as Provincial Level 1 Acro Gymnastics Execution Judge. She has also obtained her Bachelor of Fine Arts.

Nola was the Dance Director for the Fort McMurray Public School Board's PEAK Athletic Academy as well as teaching the dance curriculum for the Triple Threat Academy in Fort McMurray, AB and doing workshops and dance intensives. Currently Nola has been teaching dance around the Edmonton area.

Nola's students have enjoyed success as professionals in the dance industry, being accepted into dance universities, dancing with Disney Cruise ships, attending the Alberta Ballet School and the Joffery Ballet School and performing in music videos with artists such as Michael Buble, K-os, and These Kids Wear Crowns.

During her career Nola has worked as a choreographer of community theatre, the Vancouver 2010 Olympic Torch Celebration and choreographer for Multicultural Celebrations in Fort McMurray.

JUDGE 2022

Sarah Korabeck

TORONTO, ONTARIO

Sarah Rorabeck has over 14 years of experience educating children ages 3-18 in dance. As a teacher who still works with recreational, part-time and full-time competitive students, she is well versed in all genres, and. Currently, Sarah works full-time choreographing award-winning competitive pieces and putting students through their BATD examinations; and she was voted Best Dance Instructor (Diamond Winner - Oshawa/Whitby) for 2020!

Sarah Rorabeck is a graduate, with honours, of Sheridan's prestigious Music Theatre Performance program, where she extensively studied dance, vocal and acting. She holds her Associate level Teacher's Membership in the BATD in both tap and jazz, and is an accredited adjudicator through Judge Alliance's PAA program. She is a founding member of the Acro Dance Adjudicators (ADA), where she became a certified Acro and Dance Adjudicator. Currently, she is studying and making her way through modules in the Radar Technique by Rebecca Davies.

Sarah is a member of the CAEA and has performed professionally in musicals like Beauty and the Beast, Mary Poppins, Anne of Green Gables and many more around Canada, with some film and television. She's even been photographed by world-renowned dance-photographer, Jordan Matter (Dancers Among Us). Coming soon, Sarah will be performing in The Rocky Horror Show at Neptune Theatre.

JUDGE 2022

Jasmine Goulet

CALGARY, ALBERTA

Jasmine began her dancing career in her hometown of Banff, AB, at the age of four. She began training in ballet and quickly expanded into multiple styles of dance. She achieved her Advanced 2 with the Royal Academy of Dance, as well as with the International Dance Teachers Association in multiple styles. Jasmine continued on to gain Registered Teachers Status (RAD RTS) and Licentiate Teaching Status (IDTA).

Jasmine is passionate about professional development and is also certified with Acrobatic Arts, ADAPT and Progressing Ballet Technique. Jasmine's choreographic works are unique and innovative, challenging her students both in their technique and performance, and has received top marks and awards in competitions.

Jasmine is a very passionate teacher who is dedicated to teaching the next generation of dancers and performers. She strives to promote passion and love for dance and performing.
